

Dear President Gross and members of the Senate Executive Council:

Vice Provost for International Education Gretchen Neisler and I would like to take you up on your offer for further discussion about the first item in your email below.

Since it is summer, I propose that Gretchen and I meet first with the leadership-- president, past president, and president-elect--to share information and discuss concerns. I will then leave it up to the leadership to decide whether to invite us to a scheduled meeting of the Council.

I've copied Angie Cross so she can arrange a mutually convenient meeting time.

With collegial best regards,

John
